

DEMOCRATS ARE IN A QUANDARY

Party In The State Is Unable To Pick Out A Slate-Republican Candidates.

MANY UNIQUE SITUATIONS FOUND

Appeal Of Radical Candidates To The Conservative Ele- ment For Their Support Amuses The Men On The Fence.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, July 20.—New features are being added every day to the state political fight. It is now thought that Aylward's fight against Merton for the democratic nomination may be interesting. Former Senator William F. Vilas who was looked upon as a sure help to Aylward has suddenly decided to go to Europe and departed with his wife Thursday morning. The primary election campaign has now reached a stage at which it is possible to give practically a complete review of the various republican tickets which will be in the field. The democrats are as yet undecided, though "scattering" candidates will soon be brought out to start a contest which will rouse party enthusiasm, if nothing more. It is largely to this end that John A. Aylward of Madison was brought forward as a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination of Senator Ernst Merton of Waukesha. The contest will bring out the full democratic strength and enthrone the minority party in Wisconsin.

The Line-up.
The republicans are receiving scattering accessions to the list of candidates, but the frame-up as now seen is as follows:
For governor—Governor J. O. Davidson; J. L. Lenroot; J. J. McGinnis.
For lieutenant governor—W. D. Connor, Harrison Green; W. C. Cowling and possibly C. O. Marsh.
For secretary of state—Walter L. Houser, W. H. Froehlich, James A. Frear.
For treasurer—A. H. Dahl.
For insurance commissioner—G. E. Beedle, Thomas Purcell.
For attorney general—Charles A. McGee.
A rather unique phase of the contest developed this week, when candidates Dahl and Beedle, well known as La Follette assembly leaders, came to the center of the stage with letters inviting the stalwarts of the state to vote for them, saying that the day was past when the republican party in the state should be split by factional differences, and promising soon a harmonious agreement of the factions.

Statement Is Starting.
This statement coming from the Lenroot camp while Spaker Lenroot was actively declaiming against the corporations and the trolley lines and electric railways and lights rather startled the state. While Lenroot was attacking the corporations and declaring that the fight against the old republicans must go on until the abuses of the trusts were wiped out, his supporters were making this plea for stalwart support.
The Lenroot men have not brought out a strong candidate for the lieutenant governorship. W. D. Connor, it appears, may get the office, almost by default, as the Lenroot men put up no candidate. The only rival of the Connor ticket being W. C. Cowling of Oshkosh, who has declared that he does not want a political office because he is now too busy in prosecuting

POETICAL MARINE IS PRACTICALLY EXILED.

Author of Rhyme Criticizing Officer For Having "Always in the Way" Played at Funeral "Transferred."

Washington, D. C., July 20.—Private "Al" Price of the marine corps, who arranged in scathing rhyme an officer who ordered the playing of "Always in the Way" at the funeral of a brother marine recently in the Philippines, is to pay a heavy penalty for his poetizing. According to information received at the navy department he has been detached from service at the Marine hospital at Manila and sent to Zamboanga, on the island of Mindanao, for service. Zamboanga is known in army and navy circles as the "jumping off place." To be sent there means exile. Private Price will have ample time in his new station to write as many poems as he may wish, but he will not have the same opportunity to get them published as he had at Manila.

Large centers like New York and Chicago will be taken up first and later the inquiry will extend to the rural districts. The records for twenty years will be gone over. President Roosevelt is deeply interested in the work.

John W. Thomas of Chippewa Falls Announces Candidacy, Attacking Kempf in Letter.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., July 20.—Railroad Commissioner John W. Thomas of Chippewa Falls, whose office expires by legislative act the first of next January, yesterday announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for state treasurer. His letter is brief and takes a rap at State Treasurer J. J. Kempf, indirectly, by declaring that Mr. Thomas, if elected, will show by partiality to any banks or any personal favors of them. It is charged that Treasurer Kempf has borrowed freely on his note with his security from various banks, and when his paper is refused, he draws all the state money out of the banks that will not loan money to him, then depositing it in the banks that are willing to advance money to him on his personal notes.

During all these years he has successfully managed the 240-acre farm and has traveled 114,000 miles in this country and Europe. He has served two terms in the state legislature, acted as chairman of the town board, side supervisor, assessor and held other offices. In the work of the grange he has been prominent. STATE LABOR FEDERATION MAY MOVE FOR TEMPERANCE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., July 20.—Among the many important resolutions being debated in the annual convention of the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor, in session here in the capitol this week, is a proposal to identify the labor unions of the state in a movement for temperance among wage-earners. The resolution was proposed by the trades council of Madison and is causing wide difference of opinion in the convention. It sets forth in a preamble the fact that temperance and drunkenness is the greatest evil with which the men who toil are afflicted, and that the terrible consequences of excessive intoxication are visited upon the wives and children of the working men. It declares that it is time that labor organizations struck at the root of most of their misfortunes by taking a stand in favor of temperance and sobriety. The resolution strongly condemns the practice of "treating" and says that to this practice is due many cases of drunkenness that would otherwise not occur. It also urges that an important place in the teachings of unions be given to temperance, and that union men preach and practice temperance in their organizations and elsewhere. The resolutions declare that if labor becomes temperate and if the unions eliminate drunkenness from their membership, the result will be a higher mentality in the ranks of organized labor.

HIGHER HONORS FOR ROCK COUNTY BOY

Seattle, Daily Times, has this to say of Charles T. Hutson, whose home was formerly in Janesville and Edgerton and who graduated from the law school of the University of Wisconsin in 1901 and from the law department of the University of Washington in 1904. "Charles T. Hutson of Connel, state senator from Adams, Franklin and a part of Walla Walla county, is in Seattle in consultation with United States District Attorney Potter Charles Sullivan. Senator Hutson has just been appointed second assistant district attorney and his official residence has been designated as Seattle."

Senator Hutson will not remove to Seattle immediately. He has considerable private business to close up in eastern Washington and will delay his arrival for that purpose a month or so. He may take office on either August 1 or September 1. "The question of whether Senator Hutson and Senator Christian, principal assistant, are compelled to resign from the state senate is still under consideration. Both men would complete their service in March and both are anxious to remain in office. Attorneys generally concede that the two state senators may hold their places and as this is an "off" year it is not likely any question will be raised."

The legal process and summons were then withdrawn.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR A FRANCHISE FOR INTERURBAN

Business Men Anxious to Have Mr. Clough Build His Proposed Road.

Interurban talk is rife on the streets. Petitions that are being circulated among abiding property owners on the present car lines seeking an extension of the present local road's franchise and the permission to carry freight, are being generously signed. Through some mistake the impression became public that the new system proposed double tracks down South Main street. This is not so and the gentlemen who have the papers to be signed by property owners are having no little trouble in contradicting the report. The matter of the franchise is being left in abeyance until Mr. Clough arrives in the city next Wednesday. The party of surveyors are expected Tuesday and real work between this city and Madison can then be begun. The local line is to be entirely rebuilt and the tracks will have to be made much heavier than at present for the interurban cars. It is probable that the work of remodeling the local line will be accomplished before the snow flies this fall. Mr. Clough secures the franchise he desires. Indications now point to his being able to do so as members of the council are as enthusiastic as are the business men.

El Paso, Tex., July 20.—Governor Sonora of Mexico passed through El Paso today en route for Mexico City to consult with President Diaz and prepare for the threatened uprising in that country September 19. Diaz is calling all of his governors in to the conference.

The "uprising" is the proposed demonstration to be made against all foreigners on September 16 in the various state capitals. The movement originated with the League of Mexican Railroad Employees and its purpose is to drive out of the country Americans, English, French and Germans who hold official positions in the railroads, the mines and the smelters. The government is making preparations to control the situation.

One of the boats filled with women was swamped by the waves when within three feet of shore but all were landed in safety.

WORD SPELLING

SIMPLIFICATION

FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL USE

NEW YORK SUPERINTENDENTS MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS.

Many "ed's" shortened to "e's" and Numerous Silent Vowels and Consonants Dropped.

At a meeting of the New York City Board of Public School Superintendents held on June 18, at which City Superintendent William H. Maxwell, and Associate-Superintendents George S. Davis, Andrew W. Edson, Clarence E. Meloney, Thomas S. O'Brien, Edward B. Shallow, Edward L. Stevens and John H. Walsh were present, the following report and resolution were unanimously adopted:

New York, June 18, 1906.

To the Board of Education:

There was presented at the Board of Superintendents, at a meeting held on April 17th, the following resolution, which was adopted by the Board of Education at a meeting held on April 11th:

"Resolved, That the Board of Superintendents be, and it hereby is, requested to investigate the suggestion of the Simplified Spelling Board that certain shorter forms of words already authorized by good usage be used, and to report to the board of Education whether, in its judgment, it would be advisable to permit teachers and pupils to use all or some of such authorized forms specified in the Simplified Spelling Board's announcement of March 21, 1906."

In compliance with the request contained in the foregoing resolution, the Board of Superintendents has considered the proposition that certain shorter forms of words already authorized by good usage be recommended for the use of teachers and pupils in the public schools:

At a meeting of the Board of Superintendents held on May 15th, Prof. Brander Matthews, chairman of the Simplified Spelling Board, Col. Chas. E. Sprague, and Commissioner John Greene were heard in favor of authorizing the use in the public schools of this city of the simpler form of spelling some three hundred common words now spelled in two or more ways.

At a meeting of the Board of Superintendents held on June 14th, the Committee on Course of Study, Libraries, Text-books and Supplies presented a report from which the following are extracts:

"The movement to simplify English spelling does not involve any radical steps. It aims to secure the general adoption of the simpler spelling of two forms when two forms are authorized."

"For many years the tendency among good writers and scientific bodies has been to simplify the spelling of English words. The National Educational Association, some years ago, formally adopted a list of twelve simplified spellings. These spellings have been followed by some of the best educational papers and magazines."

"Your committee, after considering the various arguments advanced in favor of simplified spelling, is disposed to recommend that the list suggested by the Simplified Spelling Board be authorized for use in the public schools of this city."

After a very careful consideration of the report, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the spelling of the three hundred words listed by the Simplified Spelling Board be recommended for use in the schools of this city."

The words listed by the Simplified Spelling Board and referred to in the foregoing resolution are as follows:

PREPARING FOR

THE CHAUTAUQUA

OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES BUSY WITH ARRANGEMENTS.

MANY NEW CONVENIENCES

Transportation Facilities Will Be Better—Large Number of Campers Is Prospected.

Six more days—days of pleasant anticipation for thousands of days of strenuous preparation for the committee in charge—and the Janesville Chautauqua Assembly will be opened. It will be the second in the city's history and is a fore-assured success—a success because last year's was successful; and this year's program is better than that of a year ago. The interest is general throughout Rock county and in the adjoining regions and there is no question but that the attendance will be large from the opening concert of the Chicago Glee Club next Friday afternoon at half past one until the last pretty lantern illustration of Alfred L. Flude's lecture, "Baby Days," fades on the screen at the close of the Sunday evening program ten days later. Those will be pleasurable and profitable days, when the cream of the Chautauqua platform will amuse and instruct amid the most pleasant surroundings on the wooded and verdant slopes of Moles Grove; backgrounded by a high, thickly treed side hill and terminated in the fore by the bending stream.

Arrangements Elaborate.

Arrangements for the assembly were begun last August when at the last Sunday session the Chautauqua Association was assured of financial support by a large subscription of season tickets. From then preparations have been in progress. Last winter the talent was booked and other preliminary moves made. During the past month the officers and their assistants have been busy with every manner of work. The advertising committee has secured much publicity, the grounds are now being put in readiness, plans for the reception of patrons have been formulated, and transportation facilities cared for.

Preparation of Grounds.

On the grounds a force of six men is now at work. The land is being thoroughly cleaned and made fit for the occasion. The plan of the tented city is to be similar to that of last season. The auditorium canvas will occupy the slant toward the river and the camping tents are to be placed about on the west and north sides.

The large canopy of greater size this year. The 1905 canvas was 100x72 while the one contracted for this season is 120x80. The seats will be improved. The pews of the old Methodist church have been purchased for reserved seats, used while camp chairs will also be for rent. These would be furnished the patrons free if the purchase price of the pews did not demand an immediate return and the chairs are rented by the Chautauqua Association. However the dress circle seats can be made very comfortable with a sofa pillow.

There is every prospect of a large number of campers locating on the Assembly grounds this year. The association has many various sized dwelling tents for rent and will also let space for such. Already a number of families have secured these summer homes and a large number of others have made inquiries.

Light System Improved.

Last year there was considerable difficulty with the lights. The current was drawn from the street railway circuit and the result was that the operating of the cars diminished the strength at times. All is to be different now. The Janesville Electric company, to which concern the lighting contract has been let, will furnish unflashing and steady light for the entire season.

Transportation Facilities.

All that can possibly be done to facilitate the rapid transportation of patrons to and from the grounds will be accomplished this year. Superintendent Murphy of the street railway company will do his utmost to care for thousands each day while boats will ply between the grove and the Fourth avenue dock. The pier at the grounds was washed away with the freshest fast spring but this is being replaced and good river service is promised. On the last six or seven evenings there will be good moon and the water ride will prove extremely delightful. There will be one other mode of transportation: This is a carriage service. The crowds of last year warrant business for such and owners of busses and carriages will no doubt embrace the opportunity. Furthermore there will be protection and convenience for private conveyances. Last year it was compulsory that all rig be tied outside the archway but this year, Mrs. Mole, owner of the grounds, has kindly consented to allow the use of the inner field as a stable. The new system cannot help but prove most satisfactory both to the owners of carriages and to the management.

Some Other Conveniences.

Another convenience for patrons will be a telephone booth. A nickel-in-the-slot phone will be established on the grounds and be at the service of all. Besides this there is a likelihood of several rest rooms. A number of merchants are contemplating raising tents and furnishing them as for the use of the public free of charge.

The Season Ticket Sale.

The sale of season tickets has progressed rapidly. It is quite necessary that those who subscribed for these purchase at once but one thousand will be issued and every indication is that the sale of these will close before the opening of the program. A season ticket gives the buyer entrance to the grounds every morning, afternoon and evening. As the entertainments are thus furnished so cheaply the tickets are made individual and non-transferable. They must be signed and can be used by none other than the one whose signature is on the ticket.

Assembly Well Advertised.

The Chautauqua has been well advertised throughout Rock county and in four counties surrounding—Green, Dane, Jefferson and Walworth. Window cards and banners have been posted in Beloit, Brodhead, Edgerton, Evansville, Milton, Milton Junction, Whitewater, Clinton and numerous other places while the individuals of these cities and residents of the rural communities have been personally reached through the distribution of 15,000 programs.

Greater Cost of Program.

Five hundred dollars more has been expended on the program this year than last. Consequently the features will be greater and the general tone improved. Evangelist "Billy" Sunday will be the greatest of the lecturers, while Rev. J. H. Sowerby will ably care for the morning studies and deliver a few addresses. Numerous other speakers of note will be heard, while the musical and entertaining talent is particularly well chosen.

Makers of the Chautauqua.

The men who have been making all these preparations and making possible this Chautauqua are:

Labor Notes

The metal polishers and brass workers recently took a referendum vote on the proposition to remove the national headquarters of the union from New York.

Lake pilots threaten to strike if their organization is not recognized, and this will tie up most of the vessels that do business on the Great Lakes and use Chicago as a harbor.

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor and A. Furseth, legislative representative of the International Seamen's Union, appeared before the House Committee on Judiciary recently in opposition to the Gilbert Anti-Injunction bill, which would legalize injunctions in labor disputes.

Because of the energetic attitude taken by organized labor in Santa Clara county, California, against the employment of Mongolians, at least one-half of the Chinese and Japanese have already been discharged.

Plans are under way at Minneapolis, Minn., for the formation of a consumers' league, the main object of which will be to combine the purchasing power of organized labor.

Chicago teamsters say that if they do not get a wage increase they will strike on May 1. There are 5,000 union truck drivers in Chicago.

"All things are difficult before they are easy," such as getting the swing of it in advertising a store.

In Mayor Becker Milwaukee has a hustler even if he sometimes blunders.

New sidewalks are doing wonders towards improving the residence and business portion of the city.

It looks as though Janesville, Edgerton and Stoughton were all to be connected with Madison by interurban after years of patient waiting.

Reports from Madison say that Victor P. Richardson is expected to deliver Rock county to Mr. Lenroot and Mr. Cooper. Where are the other former leaders of the party in the county in the meantime.

The golden, glittering west has lured many a man to his death in the vain search for the treasures of the earth. Political promises of postoffice and such have also lured many a man to his political death.

Campaigning is fun for some men and for some, the hardest kind of work. When three or four men are after the same office some of them are sure to be left and their bad success discourages others to try next time.

State legislature members who are seeking re-election can fully appreciate the real enjoyments of the primary election law they fostered onto the unsuspecting public.

The Beloit News and Free Press are very industrious these days making Henry A. Cooper look nice and clean with a new coat of whitewash. The readers must remember however Beloit has not yet received its new postmaster appointment.

Milwaukee county promises to be the scene of a warm political fight this fall owing to the fact several candidates are seeking McGovern's job as district attorney and there are several persons who would like to have them succeed.

The furore about a revision of the board of trustees of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company has resulted in the election of one man not in the ring of former days. In this the policyholders were fortunate and began a good work that promises great results.

Just why some men believe they can sway the public masses when they are urging something directly opposite to the wishes and desires of the people is a problem that has troubled the world since its earliest history. Spellbinders they call them today, in the old days they were orators.

The Milwaukee Journal has begun a crusade for better train connections between Janesville and the metropolis of the state. It is to be supposed that the Journal hopes to encourage Janesville buyers to come to Milwaukee instead of going to Chicago as they do now. The idea is all right in theory but how it would be in practice it is hard to say. However, a two-hour run at convenient hours would do much to solve the problem.

SCARES AND COLD FACTS.

While the British foreign secretary's warning about Egypt and the religious and political unrest there influenced the price of Consols recently, and caused a serious consideration of the possibilities involved, it does not justify the deductions of certain amateur observers who foresee the early downfall of the British empire in India at the hands of the united followers of Mahomet. These observers seem able to face any problem except a simple sum in arithmetic.

It is becoming the principal function of the same newspapers nowadays to puncture news before printing it. Correspondents who see a world's yellow peril in the fight of a country which desires nothing so much as to mind its own business, a revolution in France in a local coal strike, or the collapse of the British empire in anything from the Boer war to the birth-rate, are all too plentiful. They are really the only dangerous feature in the situation. If somebody shouts "fire" loud enough he can usually produce effects on a theatre audience which render a conflagration quite unnecessary.

It has been pointed out before that the difficulty in Egypt is in the coincidence of an intelligible movement for nationalization with a revival of the Mahdism which in one form or another has kept the Sudan in a ferment for the last thirty years. The step from this to a world-wide movement of Mohammedan races is so wide that it is not worth considering. It has the same reference and possibilities of forecast, so far as the markets of the world are concerned, as the crop conditions likely to prevail in America a hundred years hence.

Here is a typical imbecility: "When Russia is fully occupied with Great Britain in the East, the Sultan of Turkey will rise and proclaim himself Caliph. The seventy millions of Moslems in India will then rise to the call. It must be remembered that even Hindus and Moslems combined in the Indian mutiny." "The writer of this," calls himself "the author of the Dictionary of Islam." The title sounds impressive, but it contains nothing more trustworthy than this it is perhaps not to be regretted that nobody ever heard of it. There are spoken in India 24 important languages, besides English. There are hundreds of castes, united in nothing but conformity to the British rule. The Hindus form 70 per cent of the population and the Mohammedans 17 per cent. In the Indian mutiny for one Mohammedan fighting on the side of the mutineers one hundred were true to their salt, adding the British in suppressing the mutiny. To anybody who has seen the Hindu and the Moslem together, an alliance between them is inconceivable. Compared with the relations of the two creeds, those between the Christian and the Mohammedan are positively cordial.

It will be seen that it is seriously suggested that 70 per cent of the Indian population should rise in order to give the domination of that country to a small Mohammedan minority, which openly despises the dominant sect. It is true that there are 200,000,000 Mohammedans in the world. They are scattered all over Africa and Asia. Their Jehads, or religious wars, are essentially sporadic. Anything like unity of action is simply unthinkable. Their numbers decrease as the years go by. Their spiritual head is the Sultan of Turkey, and the spectacle of that nightmare-ridden debauches rising to do anything except procrastinate on some of his just obligations would be a greater miracle than the heaven-swing coffin of Mahomet. By all means let us have intelligent forecasts of world developments, but surely newspaper space is too precious for speculations in the manner of the "Lost Tribes of Israel."

MISS ROSE KUSTER WEDDED ROY WELCH

Roy Welch of Sioux City, Ia., and Miss Rose Kuster, daughter of Simon Kuster, who resides on Academy street, were married at St. Patrick's church by Rev. J. J. McGinnity at eight o'clock Wednesday evening. The groom is at present in the employ of the Telephone Co. in the Iowa city, but eventually hopes to make his home here. Immediately after the ceremony and just as the happy pair were about to take their departure for Sioux City on their honeymoon an amusing incident happened. Some mischievous boys had got into possession of a piece of garden hose which the cement walk-builders had been using and they turned a stream of water on the group of young people who were in waiting to shower the bride and groom with rice and old shoes, causing a wild scramble and permitting the principals of the wedding to get away without the customary send-off.

To Wed in Chicago. Tonight John Kelly of No. 48 Maplewood avenue, Chicago, and Miss Mary Scott of Janesville are to be wedded in the metropolis this evening. A party consisting of John J. Heeney, Will Griffin, John Conn, and the Misses Sadie and Nellie Grissin, Nellie and Kittie Cronin, accompanied the bride-to-be to Chicago this morning.

RINGLING'S CIRCUS HERE ON LABOR DAY

Will Come to Janesville on Sunday, September 2. According to Authorized Announcement, Ringling Bros. circus is to show in Janesville on Labor Day, Monday, September 3. Speculation on the subject of the probable date was set at rest today when N. J. Pettit, representing the showmen, arrived in the city and made the authoritative announcement. The show is to reach Janesville on the Sunday preceding and will be here two days.

Attention Comrades There will be a special meeting of W. H. Sargent Post No. 20 at their hall this evening at 7:30, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our late comrade, James M. Hinde and George E. Viney.

Commander, L. M. NELSON, Adjutant.

KNIGHTS OF THE GLOBE WILL PICNIC AT THE CHAUTAUQUA GROUNDS

The Knights of the Globe will hold a basket picnic at the Chautauqua Grounds, Mole's grove, tomorrow afternoon. There will be games, boating and various other amusements and a good time is assured. All Sir Knights, ladies and friends are invited.

IMPROVING GROUNDS FOR SUNDAY'S GAME

Infield Cleared, Lawn Mowed, and Grandstand Scrubbed—Other Baseball Gossip.

Elaborate plans are being made by the Eagle baseball club management for Sunday's game, which is to be with "The Warrens" of Chicago. The infield of the Eagle park diamond has been cleared of weeds and grass and the lawn of the outfield has been mowed. The grandstand is to be scrubbed clean tomorrow. An effort will be made to abolish the "kid nuisance." The condition of the fences on the fair grounds permits all "young" Janesville to enter free of charge and the opportunity is not allowed to go by. In the past there has been some trouble with the boys climbing and running about the grandstand, but Sunday, watchmen will see that the patrons of the game will not thus be annoyed.

Eagle Line-Up Tomorrow. (In the game with Footville tomorrow the Eagles' team will be composed of the following: Hall, C. Schmidt and Hutchinson, p. and r. Ward, 1b.; Casey, 2b.; Carle, ss.; Connors, 3b.; Dee, lf.; Dunwiddie, cf.

Week-End Game Experiment. The game next Tuesday between the Eagles and the Milton Crescents at Eagle park will be largely an experiment. Sunday ball had paid for itself thus far this year, but whether or not week-day games will be successful financially is a matter of doubt. If the patronage warrants it, Janesville will be treated to two or more games each week during the remainder of the season.

Amateur Games Tomorrow. Tomorrow there will be the usual amateur games at Athletic park. At half past one o'clock the Parker Pen and Y. M. C. A. teams will cross bats and at three-fifteen the Lewis Knitting company and the Gazette nines will play.

ALL CROPS ARE NOW IN GOOD CONDITION

Fifteen Cents Being Offered for 1906 Tobacco—Tame Hay Crop Is Light.

Although a good rainstorm would be beneficial the crops of Rock county are in fair condition for the last dry region was dampened last night by a few hours dripping. These local showers have been light but general during the last two days and today the fields are looking well. The tame hay crop is light, but the marsh hay supply was never better. This may cause a difference of one or two dollars in the ton price of hay this season, but no famine is anticipated as an immense crop is being harvested about Chippewa Falls and in the entire north central portion of the state. From there hay can be imported at a very small cost. Corn, which was held back by the cool weather, has taken a start and is growing rapidly. Sugar beets are also showing up well and factory representatives are feeling confident of a heavy yield. Tobacco, although needing rain, has seldom presented such an excellent appearance. Reports from the field are to the effect that buyers are doing much riding and fifteen cents is being offered for the crop, which is scarcely started. However, farmers are prone to refuse this price as a good harvest is in prospect and tobacco promises to bring better returns than ever.

The second band concert this week will be rendered in the Court House park this evening at eight o'clock. Every indication is that the evening will be ideal and an unprecedented attendance is in prospect, for in the park there is room and comfort for all. The following program will be given: "General Tozer," Menzel Overture—"Don Quixote," Gruenwald "Cours et Dirurs," Tobani Waltz—"Wedding of the Winds," Hall Intermezzo—"City Swells," Neilson Medley—"Song of the Boys in Blue," Leauendeau March—"The Prospector," Holmes

BELOIT PASTOR AND NEPHEW OF MRS. E. W. LOWELL KILLED

Late yesterday afternoon a cablegram from Professor Theodore Lyman Wright of Beloit college brought the news of the instant death in an elevator accident at Florence, Italy, of Rev. B. R. Cheney, pastor of the Second Congregational church in the line city. Mr. Cheney was a nephew of Mrs. E. W. Lowell of this city and is well known here. No particulars of the terrible demise have been received. The end was particularly sad, as Mr. Cheney was enjoying a vacation abroad with a minister from Beaver Dam and a friend from Oberlin, Ohio. This trip was a gift from his congregation, presented as a token of their appreciation of his work in the erection of a new house of worship. In this church the news was broken to his flock last evening when the regular mid-week prayer services were held. To Mrs. Cheney, who is visiting in East Elmhurst, N. Y., it is a terrible blow, for a young daughter was just recently taken from them. Mr. Cheney was one of the leading residents of Beloit. He has been pastor of the Second Congregational church for the past four years, and through his efforts largely the new $40,000 edifice was built. Mr. Cheney graduated from Beloit college in 1891 and took a theological course in Oberlin college. He did work for three years in northern Wisconsin before taking a pastorate. He possessed musical talent and music entered into his work to a large degree.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Factory Not Coming: C. C. Smith of the Smith & Holtum Manufacturing company of Clinton has assured the citizens of that town that they have no intention of moving to Janesville, though an expansion of factory space will be necessary.

Was Operated Upon: Charles Watts, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Watts of Albany, was operated upon at the Palmer Hospital here early this week. His recovery is certain.

Wed in Forest City: Miss Ella McWilliams and Everett Crandall, both of Milton, were quietly married in Rockford yesterday.

Is Improving: Fred Vogel, who was hurt by a lever on the steam boiler in the roundhouse of the North-Western road last Monday, is improving rapidly and will be out in about three days.

After a Franchise: Don Farnsworth, late of Janesville, now of New York, and Chicago, is in Milwaukee working hard to secure a franchise for the Automatic Telephone company, which is said to be a rival to the Bell system. Mr. Farnsworth is enthusiastic over the prospects of securing a franchise for his company.

Horse-Traders: Several parties of horse-traders, not gypsies, have passed through the city in the past two days, going south. Earlier in the week there were four other parties of the same class, also going south. They travel in wagons, similar to the gypsy outfits, and are foreigners, but deny they are true Romanians, and the gypsies also make strong denial of their relationship.

A Corn-Fed Tramp: Last night the city lock-up housed a lodger who had been subsisting entirely on the stray kernels of corn picked up in a boxcar all the way from Minneapolis to Janesville. He said he couldn't summon up the courage to beg for food. This morning the stranger resumed his journey to Chicago.

Spooning in the Park: So long as a careful eye is kept on all points in an imaginary semi-circle, which has the courthouse for its center, spooning couples are content to take no heed of prying eyes within the building. Early this afternoon an aged couple, one appearing to be about sixty and the other only a few years behind, sat on a bench near the windows of the register of deeds, office and engaged in a spirited hugging match which proved very interesting to the onlookers.

Runaway This Morning: A team, hitched to the "calf" wagon of J. H. Kennedy, butcher, became frightened at a little girl's tricycle while hitched on Milton avenue this morning and ran away. Before being stopped the pole of the vehicle was broken and other slight damage done.

George H. Jacobs left this morning for Mount Morris, Ill., where he will spend Sunday. Mrs. Jacobs and child have been visiting there, since early in the week.

OBITUARY.

James M. Hinde, whose death occurred Wednesday, was born June 18th, 1837, in Guernsey county, Ohio. When about twenty-one years old he went to Springfield, Ohio, and learned the trade of carriage-making. In April, 1863, he was married to Miss Caroline Donovan and made his home in Springfield, Ohio, until 1867, when he moved to Reedsburg, Wis., where he followed his trade. May 14th, 1893, Mrs. Hinde died, leaving her husband and their only child, Miss Ida, to mourn her loss. In April, 1893, Mr. Hinde and his daughter moved to Janesville and built a neat home at 166 Milton avenue, where they have resided ever since. Mr. Hinde also took his share as a U. S. soldier in the War of the Rebellion, served faithfully and was honorably discharged from the service on the 24 day of September, 1864, by reason of expiration of term of service. He was a member of the One Hundred and Fifty-second Ohio. Mr. Hinde had the well-earned reputation of a strictly honest, quiet, peaceable and law-abiding citizen. He left behind his only child, Miss Ida.

Mrs. Amanda McGiffin Word was received last evening of the death of Mrs. Amanda McGiffin of Marion, Indiana, which occurred last Sunday. Mrs. McGiffin was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sherwood of this city and a sister of Mrs. E. R. Winslow and James and Roscoe Sherwood of Janesville. She visited here not long since and leaves a number of friends to mourn her loss.

Charles Diehl All that is mortal of the late Charles Diehl was tenderly laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery yesterday afternoon. Rev. R. M. Vaughan conducted the funeral services at the Baptist church at two o'clock and the following acted as pallbearers: Fred Henrick, John Conn, William Farmer and George Farmer.

This Proposition Is Now Up

Can we longer afford to overlook the fact that we can secure the very best of dental service at about half the rates we have been paying? Dr. Richards of Janesville, the independent dentist, says he would be delighted to have his work (put out at a modest price) compared with work done by others at possibly double his prices. He affirms that the comparison will establish the fact that his work is good in every respect. His work is lasting. His work is done thoroughly. His work is substantial, and, in fact, not excelled by that of any other local dentist.

In addition to the reasonableness of his prices he gives close attention to painless work. Now see what you get by having him do your dental work—

Rutledge & Co. Lowest of the Bidders for Improvements on River Street and Vicinity.
Bids for the paving of River street from the fire station to Pleasant street and the alley around the post office and leading down to River street, were opened by the street assessment committee this afternoon and at the council meeting Monday night a recommendation that the contract be awarded to A. E. Rutledge & Co. of Rockford was offered and doubtless passed. The firm mentioned was the lowest of the five bidders, although Rink & Schnell of Dixon, Ill., was within $15 on the alley. P. W. Ryan, Isaac F. Connors, and James Ryan, all of Janesville, were the other bidders. The Rockford firm will lay the brick on the street for $1.50 a square yard and in the alley for $1.00 a square yard. The other bids ranged as high as $1.77. Rutledge & Co.'s bids on the setting and re-setting of the stone were also lower in most instances.

Afton, July 20.—Teachers for the Afton state graded school have been secured for the ensuing year. Miss Sarah Z. Drafiak as principal and Miss Ethel E. Soper of Beloit as teacher in the primary department.

The selection of these teachers, by the board insures a good school the coming year, as both are experienced and competent instructors, well qualified for their respective positions and well known in Afton and vicinity.

Members of Afton Assembly No. 946, Loyal Americans of the Republic, are hoping that Wednesday evening, August 1, will be just the right temperature to make a spirited demand for ice cream as the members of that organization are planning to give an ice cream social that evening on Fred Kethelhorn's lawn.

A special committee has been named to arrange for the affair of which the following are members: Otto E. Gehling, Anna Oakley, Harry Turner, Anno Kethelhorn and U. G. Waite.

Sociality and a five o'clock supper were the chief features of an afternoon meeting of the Ladies' Aid society held on the lawn at the home of Mrs. U. G. Waite last Wednesday.

Some new comers to Afton and vicinity were present and the gathering was designed to promote a better acquaintance and bring the members and their friends closer in touch socially.

About thirty women were present and all enjoyed the affair very much. So well pleased were the members of the society with the afternoon thus spent that they decided to hold their "Missionary tea" in like manner and have named Wednesday afternoon, August 15, as the date and the lawn at the home of Mrs. Fred Kethelhorn as the place for that event.

For this occasion each member is expected to bring an offering, the money for which they have earned by individual effort, and to tell how they earned it. MILTON EDITOR TO HAVE POULTRY PAPER

New Fraternal Insurance Society in College Village—Band Concert Saturday Night.

(Special to the Gazette.)

Milton, July 20.—Wisconsin is to have a new poultry paper and it will be the only one in this state published in English, said Floyd Coon of Milton at the Kirby house.

The paper will be published by W. H. Davis, editor of the Milton Journal.

Mr. Davis has published the Journal for about ten years, and in casting about for a periodical field which he might enter, found that only one poultry paper is printed in this state, and that in German. The yearly subscription price will be but 25 cents. This is less than almost all others among the numerous papers of this class throughout the country. Thousands of dollars are paid by Wisconsin breeders to poultry papers outside the state for advertising, and hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of eggs and fowls are sold by Wisconsin farmers every year for this is one of the sections where, throughout the state, are raised in large numbers.

Sherwood and his sister of Shingle House, Pa., have spent several weeks here and as a result of their labors a modern protective lodge has been organized here with the following officers: Past president, Mrs. J. REFORESTING SAND HILLS IN THE WEST

Season Favors First Year's Work on Garden City Reserve in Kansas.

Reclaiming the barren sand hills of the Middle West with forest cover, to supply timber when there is a dearth of it, is one of the more striking of the important forest planting projects of the Forest Service. Four of the National forests have been established in the non-agricultural region with the express purpose of getting a firm grip on methods which will overcome natural difficulties and set up object lessons for the benefit of the people. These are the Niobrara, the Dismal River, and the North Platte reserves in Nebraska and the Garden City reserve in Kansas. The Nebraska reserves have responded so well to careful treatment that hundreds of thousands of seedlings have been planted out and millions more are being raised in nurseries for use in other reserves. Thus, for the first planting on the Garden City reserve, just completed, most of the trees were taken from the nurseries in the Dismal River reserve.

The Kansas reserve lies in a region of scattered, barren sand hills, interlaced with prairie on which grass thrives well enough to support live stock. The origin of these hills, in itself interesting, reminds one in a way of that of the sand dunes which encroached from the sea upon the fertile fields of western France and laid them waste. In both cases the wind has been the enemy of the soil, for in France wind drove the sand of the seashore inland, and in the middle-western region of our own country wind drove eastward the sand which the Arkansas River had carried down in floods and afterwards exposed to dry. The sand hills were formed long ago, and the action of the wind is now largely checked by the spread of the carpet of grass, which binds the sand wherever there is enough moisture to encourage it.

The semiarid conditions of the region necessarily restrict the selection of trees. Right choice of species, the crux of forest planting generally, is here especially decisive. By its aid, together with right planting methods and right care of the plantation, a treeless region, one, therefore, in which wood is a scarce and a highly valuable commodity, can be made to produce useful woods, and at a cost so slight as to satisfy good business judgment. Thus, on a light, sandy surface, whose only cover is wild grass and weeds, a merchantable forest crop is to be grown. In addition to the general demand for wood, there will be a special demand in connection with the Garden City Irrigation Project, which is within a few miles of the Garden City Reserve.

Honey locust, Osage orange, Russian mulberry, red cedar, and western yellow pine are the trees used in the new project, of which 51,000 came from the government nursery near Halsey, Neb. The planting this season progressed under highly favorable conditions, as regards weather and the physical condition of the soil, and at the expiration of six and one-half days, thirteen men had completed the task at a total cost, exclusive of the trees, of $3.35 per acre.

A fence was built about the three-fourths of a section in which the planting was done, though part of this area remains to be planted next season. This was to exclude stock. To exclude prairie fires a fire guard was ploughed about the plantation.

CHAPTER IV.

It was pay day in the car shops, and Oakley posted a number of notices in conspicuous places about the works. They announced a 10 per cent reduction in the wages of the men, the cut to go into effect immediately.

By and by McClintock came in from the yards. He was hot and perspiring, and his cheek shined moistly to his powerful shoulders.

Oakley looked up inquiringly from the letter he was writing.

"Have you seen the notices?"

"Yes," nodding.

"Heard anything from the men yet?"

"Not a word."

McClintock returned to the yards. It was the noon hour, and in the shade of one of the sheds he found a number of the hands at lunch, who lived too far from the shops to go home to dinner.

"Say, Milt," said one of these, "have you tumbled to the notices, 10 per cent all round? You'll be having to go down in your socks for coin."

"It's there, all right," cheerfully.

"I knew when Cornish came down here there would be something drop shortly. I ain't never known it to fall. The old skinflint, I'll bet he ain't losing any money."

"You bet he ain't, not he," said a second with a short laugh.

The first man, Brannon by name, bit carefully into the wedge-shaped piece of pie he was holding in his hand. "If I was as rich as Cornish I'm hanged if I'd be such an infernal stiff! What good is his money doing him, anyhow?"

"What does the boss say, Milt?"

"That wages will go back as soon as he can put them back."

"Yes, they will. Like fun!" said Brannon sarcastically.

"You're a lot of kickers, you are," commented McClintock good naturedly. "You don't believe for one minute, do you, that the Huckleberry or the shops ever earned a dollar?"

"You can gamble on it that they ain't ever cost Cornish a red cent," said Brannon as positively as a mouthful of pie would allow.

"I wouldn't be too sure about that," said the master mechanic, walking on.

"I bet he ain't out none on this," remarked Brannon cynically. "If he was he wouldn't take it so blamed easy."

The men began to straggle back from their various homes and to form in little groups about the yards and in the shops. They talked over the cut and argued the merits of the case, as men will, made their comments on Cornish, who was generally conceded to be as mean in money matters as he was fortunate, and then went back to their work when the 1 o'clock whistle blew in a state of high good humor with themselves and their critical ability.

The next day the Herald dealt with the situation at some length. The whole tone of the editorial was rancorous and bitter. It spoke of the parsimony of the new management, which had been instigated by a number of recent dismissals among men who had served the road long and faithfully and who deserved other and more considerate treatment. It declared that the cut was but the beginning of the troubles in store for the hands and characterized it as an attempt on the part of the new management to curry favor with Cornish, who was notoriously hostile to the best interests of labor.

It wound up by regretting that the men were not organized, as proper organization would have enabled them to meet this move on the part of the management.

When Oakley read the obnoxious editorial his blood grew hot and his mood belligerent. It showed evident and unusual care in the preparation, and he guessed correctly that it had been written and put in type in readiness for the cut. It was a direct personal attack, too, for the expression "the new management," which was used over and over, could mean but the one thing.

Dan's first impulse was to hunt Ryder up and give him a sound thrashing, but his better sense told him that while this rational mode of expressing his indignation would have been excusable enough a few years back, when he was only a brakeman, as the manager of the Buckhorn and Antioch railroad it was necessary to pursue a more pacific policy.

He knew he could be made very unpopular if these attacks were persisted in. This he did not mind especially except as it would interfere with the carrying out of his plans and increase his difficulties. After thinking it over he concluded that he would better see Ryder and have a talk with him. It would do no harm, he argued, and it might do some good, provided, of course, that he could keep his temper.

He went directly to the Herald office and found Griff and alone. When Dan strode into the office, looking rather warm, the latter turned a trifle pale, for he had his doubts about the manager's temper and no doubts at all about his muscular development, which was imposing.

"I came to see what you meant by this, Ryder," his caller said, and he held out the paper folded to the insulting article. "Ryder assumed to examine it carefully, but he knew every word there."

"Oh, this? Oh, yes! The story of the reduction in wages down at the car shops. There! You can take it from under my nose. I can see quite clearly."

"Well," repeated Ryder after him, with exasperating composure. "The editor was no stranger to intrusions of this sort, for his sarcasms were frequently personal. His manner varied to suit each individual case. When the wronged party stormed into the office, wrathful and loud voiced, he was generally willing to make prompt reparation, especially if the visitor had the advantage of physical preponderance on his side. When, however, the caller was uncertain and palpably in awe of him, as sometimes happened, he got no sort of satisfaction. With Oakley he pursued a middle course."

"Well," he repeated.

"What do you mean by this?"

"I think it speaks for itself, don't you?"

"I went into this matter with you, and you know as well as I do why the men are cut. This—striking the paper contemptuously with his open hand—is the worst sort of rubbish, but it may serve to make the men feel that they are being wronged, and it is an attack on me."

"Did you notice that? I didn't know but it was too subtle for you."

"He couldn't resist the globe at Oakley's expense."

"Disguised, of course, but intended to give the men less confidence in me. Now I'm not going to stand any more of this sort of thing."

"He was conscious he had brought his remarks to a decidedly lame conclusion."

"And I'll tell you one thing, Mr. Oakley. I'm editor of the Herald, and I don't allow any man to dictate to me what I shall print. That's a point I'll pass on for myself."

"You know the situation. You know that the general will dispose of his interests here unless they can be made self-sustaining, and whether you like him or not, he stands as a special providence to the town."

"I only know what you have told me," sneeringly.

"Oakley bit his lips. He saw it would have been better to have left Ryder alone. He felt his own weakness and his inability to force him against his will to be fair. He gulped down his anger and chagrin."

"I don't see what you can gain by stirring up this matter."

"Perhaps you don't."

"Am I to understand you are hostile to the road?"

"If that means you, yes. You haven't helped yourself by coming here as though you could bully me into your way of thinking. I didn't get much satisfaction from my call on you. You let me know you could attend to your own affairs, and I can attend to mine just as easily. I hope you appreciate that."

Dan turned on his heel and left the office, cursing himself for his stupidity in having given the editor an opportunity to get even.

...FORTY YEARS AGO...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, July 10, 1866.—Houdin.—Those who didn't go to see Houdin's most clever slight-of-hand performances last evening, hear his wonderful ventriloquism listen to the splendid music and witness the clog dancing, want to go this evening. It's the best performance of its kind that has been seen here; no mistake.

Robbery at the American House.—On Wednesday night the room of a young man named Justus W. Allen, who was stopping at the American House, was entered and $900 in greenbacks, stolen therefrom. He resides at Broadhead and while in the army saved some $1500 in money with which he proposed to go into business, and had been away to buy stock. He was returning home having made some purchases, and had reserved this $900 to invest in a homestead. The room was entered by turning the key in the door with forepicks from the outside, and afterward locked in the same manner. The frequency of these robberies is alarming and calls for some stringent measures to put a stop to them. Janesville seems to be well known to rogues as a good field chance of detention.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

Every old sore exists because of a polluted condition of the blood. This vital fluid is infected with some germ or old taint, or perhaps has been left in an unhealthy condition from a long spell of sickness, or the trouble may be inherited. The poisonous germs and matter with which the blood is saturated force an outlet on the face, arms, legs or other part of the body, and form a sore or ulcer. This being continually fed by a polluted blood supply, grows red and angry, festers and eats into the surrounding flesh until it becomes what is very aptly termed an "old sore." The relief produced by external treatment is only temporary. The only treatment that can do any real good is a blood purifier that goes to the very root of the trouble and removes the cause, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. It drives out from the circulation all morbid matter and germs, even reaching down to hereditary taints, and by cleansing the blood, heals old sores permanently. S. S. S. not only removes all taints and poisons from the blood but builds it up by supplying it with the rich, health-sustaining properties it needs to keep the system in health. S. S. S. makes pure blood and a sore must heal if the blood is pure and healthy. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

NEW TOBACCO COMPANY IN FIELD AT EDGERTON

Edgerton, July 19.—The Eagle says: "The Gary Tobacco company is the title of a new leaf tobacco firm which filed articles of incorporation Thursday. The company is capitalized at $20,000, with Col. W. F. Vilas of Madison president and George Gary of this city secretary and treasurer. The management of the business will devolve upon Mr. Gary, who for a number of years has been manager of the American Cigar company's extensive business at this point, which position he has resigned, effective August 1st.
